THE return of a full-fledged Ranji Trophy is the highlight of India's domestic calendar which was formalised at the Board of Control for Cricket in India's (BCCI) Apex Council meeting in Mumbai on Thursday. # Confident of doing well: India 'A' captain Srinath

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

CHENNAI is in the midst of a chess wave. Everywhere in the city one can see banners and bill boards of the 44th Chess Olympiad to be held at Mahabali-puram from July 28. All eyes will be on the India 'A' men's team comprising of Vidit Gujrathi, P H a - r i k r i s h n a , Arjun Erigaisi, S L N a r a y a n a n , K Sasikiran. They have an average rating

Masters. The value such legends bring in terms of their abundance of knowledge cannot be described in words.

India won a historic bronze in the Open section of 2014 Olympiad. Can India better their Tromso performance? As I said earlier, we are preparing well for the event. We are optimistic that India can do well in the Olympiad and even better than what they did last time (in Tromso).

Can you elaborate the role of being a team captain? It means you get to work with some of the best players in the world. It gives you an opportunity to watch and train them at close quarters. It serves as an opportunity to groom some young talent.

Which team is the favourite to win in the Open section? USA start as favourites, on paper. They have some top players, but you never know.

Do you think having Magnus Carlsen will create more excitement? You do not get to see the World No 1 in action very often. Plus after his announcement that he will not defend his world title, people will like all the more to see him action.

How happy are you on having three of your students in the team? I am very very proud to see how far they have grown. Really happy for them.

Will there be pressure of playing at home? There will definitely be pressure, but there will be advantages of the home support as well, which will make a lot of differences in bringing a positive feeling within the group.

EXPRESS READ

Taipei Open: Twin delight for Tanisha

TAIPEI: Tanisha Crasto entered quarterfinals of women's doubles and mixed doubles at the Taipei Open Super 300 tournament. P Kashyap also reached the last eight round. Tanisha and Ishaan Bhatnagar beat Chinese Taipei's Cheng Kai Wen and Wang Yu Qiao 21-14, 21-17 in the mixed doubles. She then combined with Shruti Mishra to beat Jia Yin Lin and Lin Yu-Hao 21-14, 21-8 in a doubles.

Nagal returns to Indian Davis Cup team

NEW DELHI: Sumit Nagal made a comeback to the Indian Davis Cup team for the away World Group I tie against Norway while doubles specialist Divij Sharan was dropped. Ramkumar Ramanathan, Prajesh Gunneswaran, Sasikumar Mukund, Yuki Bhambri, doubles exponent Rohan Bopanna have been named in the team. Of the six players, one would be named a reserve by captain Rohit Rajpal after assessing conditions in Norway and it will be a five-member unit that will compete on September 16 and 17.

Chance for fringe players to make an impression

With most of the India regulars sitting out, the ODI leg of the white-ball series against West Indies is an ideal setting to test their bench strength.

INDIA'S BATTING

With the likes of Sanju Samson, Deepak Hooda and one out of Ishan Kishan or Ruturaj Gaikwad expected to feature, a good performance from any of them could catapult them in the eyes of the selectors. At this point, Hooda, coming off an impressive series against Ireland, leads the pack but the next week may change that.

JADEJA'S BOWLING FORM

While his red-ball bowling remains strong, Ravindra Jadeja's form in the white-ball is concerning. Almost like he has forgotten the art of picking wickets. He can still be played as a batting all-rounder but the management will like him to do more than what he's doing at the moment.

PROBLEMS FOR WEST INDIES

In the wider picture, like most bilaterals, this series makes little sense outside of broadcast money (it's not even part of the Super League). But for the hosts, it's an opportunity to correct a lot of wrongs. They have lost their last six on the bounce. Time to arrest that trend.
